Last evening as a well known citizen was walking up Market street with his wife, at the intersection of Fourteenth street, a drunken rowdy stepped forward and grasped the lady roughly by the arm.

The husband was about to strike the fellow with his cane, when he released his hold and moved back. A few moments afterward he was arrested by Officer Billy Rutherford and locked up to answer. He gave his name as Paddy Myles.

"QUEEN Mesmer's Gigantic Mastodon Gift Carnival" was the title of an entertainment announced to be given in Washington Hall on Saturday evening. Miss Louise Anderson, "Europe's greatest Enchantress," and the "Fakir of Ava," were announced as the stellar attractions. But there were so many people who didn't go to the show that no show was given. In short, the Grand Gift Carnival didn'tdraw, and as there wasn't money enough in the and as there wasn't money enough in the house to pay expenses, the manager wise-ly decided to give no show.

A Mysterious Appair.—About a quarter past ten o'clock last night there was a mysterious shooting affair on Twelfth arrect, just above the Baptist Church. People living in the vicinity heard at that hour a couple of pistol shots in quick succession, followed by the screams of a woman, and upon rushing to their doars and windows and looking out, saw two men and a woman; one of the men, taking down Fourteenth street to Eoff, and thence down that street. As the two started down that street has the woman was heard to say "I will take you home myself." It was he who did the shooting, as he was seen with a pistol in his hand just after the shots were heard, while the other man was apparently unarmed. The parties was apparently unarmed. It is a fact well established by unquestionable teatmony that Hall's Halr Renewer renews, cleanses, brightens, invigorates and restores to its original color and lastre faded gray or discolored hair, cheaply, quickly and surely. The poorest people prefer to buy it and use it, rather than to proclaim in a manner more forcible than words can delineate, through blanched locks or grizzly beard, that they are aged and passing to decay. A very short trial will convince the most akeptical that it does eradicate the scalp diseases which rob the hair of its color and life.—Fort Scott (Kan.) Daily Monitor.
